What school are you planning to attend? _____

Teresa Scott, a former WHS teacher and school board member, was well known for the phrase, "I love a good challenge." She set many goals for herself and faced every challenge with hard work and a positive attitude. A scholarship(s) will be awarded in her memory to a senior or seniors who were able to face a challenge with similar determination and perseverance,

Compose an essay describing a personal challenge that you have faced and overcome. This challenge could be academic, physical, or personal. Please explain how overcoming this challenge has affected your life and your future goals. Also include information on your future goals and what you hope to accomplish beyond high school.

Along with your essay, please submit a list of your high school activities, any work experience, or volunteer experience. If you have a resume, that will suffice.

Application is due in the Guidance Office on April 2nd by 3:15pm
